COACHING AND CONVERSATIONS FOR CHANGE

Day 1 Focus Questions

- What is coaching and why is it an effective model for supporting change in schools?
- What are the qualities of a good coach?
- How do you grow your coaching skills?
- How do you set a goal for coaching?
- How do you have a coaching conversation that leads to change?

NOTE: In order to attend Day 2 only, you must have completed Day 1 within the last three years.

- Further coaching conversations with opportunities for targeted feedback of skills and techniques.
- A protocol for group coaching, useful for exploring a problem of practice or case management of a student.
- Exploring processes for leadership conversations, including different forms of “difficult conversations”.
- Reflection on the strengths and opportunities for coaching and leadership conversations in their schools.

Day 2 Additional Topics

- You will be invited to select your days in the registration survey.
- If you are not a QASEL member, and you'd like to register to take advantage of the discount, you'll have an option to let us know and then complete your membership forms before the course begins. (<https://www.qasel.org.au/join-qasel>)
- The course cost includes morning tea and lunch. You will receive workshop materials and access to online resources. You will also be invited to join a network for follow-up support.
- Registration closes 10 days before the course begins, or when we are at capacity. An invoice will be sent to your nominated school when registration closes and payment is requested before the course begins. While cancellations can't be processed after registration closes, you're welcome to send someone in your place.
- If you'd like further information, please get in touch.
