QASELcon

20 - 22 AUGUST 2025

Welcome to QASELcon25!

On behalf of the organisers of this years QASELcon, we wish you a warm welcome!

Over the next three days, we present to you a conference packed with information and inspiration. Featuring some truly influential and exciting keynote speakers, this year's program also includes panel discussions, workshops and time to connect and share your experiences. We're excited to share QASELcon25 with you!

About QASEL

The Queensland Association of Special Education Leaders (QASEL) is the peak professional association for special education leaders across Queensland. QASEL members are Principals, Deputy Principals, Heads of Special Education Services, Heads of Department/Curriculum and other leaders and aspirants, who support students with disability, across all sectors of education in Queensland. Some members are based in special schools, many support students with disability and diverse learners in primary, secondary and early childhood settings.

Our vision | Successful Leaders – Successful Learners

Our commitment | To inspire leaders across the state to achieve the best possible learning outcomes for students with disability.

Our values | Leading: We advocate for equity and we influence for positive change.
Linking: We collaborate with purpose and support each other's wellbeing.
Learning: We learn together to build our individual and collective capability.

Speakers

Dr Adam Fraser

Dr Adam Fraser is a human performance researcher and consultant who studies how organisations adopt a high performance culture to thrive in this challenging and evolving business landscape.

Adam has a true passion for the research behind his work and has long held partnerships with various Universities throughout Asia Pacific. In fact, he is thought to be the only keynote speaker in the world to have had the impact of his keynote presentation measured in a University study (It improved the behaviour of attendees by 41%).

He has a PhD in Biomedical Science and is the author of four best selling books, including "The Third Space" and "Strive". He is the director of the e-lab, a research company that partners with different universities around the world to solve business challenges.

In the last 10 years he has delivered more than 1500 presentations to over half a million people Globally. Dr Adam has shared the stage with the Dalai Lama, Steve Wozniak (co-founder of Apple), and Sir Ken Robinson (the most watched Ted talk in history).

Adam has recently won several awards including the International Management Academy Award for Best Global Action Research Paper and the APAC Management Consulting Award for Most Influential Wellbeing and Performance Speaker.

Jordan Nguyen

Dr Jordan Nguyen is a leading Australian engineer, inventor and innovator, committed to improving as many lives as possible, and becoming a driving force behind both human and technological evolution as we move into the future.

An internationally renowned engineer for humanity, Jordan designs life-changing technologies to transform the lives of people with disabilities and the elderly through his role as founder of Psykinetic, a social business committed to bringing positive, sustainable and life-altering change. He also shares his adventures through documentaries across the world. Inspired by human endeavour, Jordan has big ambitions to see our world step consciously and creatively into a better future.

Jordan is a passionate ambassador for STEAM education, adaptable mindsets and big-picture thinking, and holds a degree in Electrical Engineering, First-Class Honours, Diploma in Engineering Practice, and a PhD in Biomedical Engineering (Chancellors List) from the University of Technology Sydney. He has taught university engineering masters students and overseen PhDs in Artificial Intelligence design and Biomedical instrumentation and has supervised many more research students. He believes our young generations are the change-makers of tomorrow and has the potential to create solutions to the world's greatest challenges.

Speakers

Leanne Hughes
